GOOD NEWS

Bhuvan Bam returns with a new season of Taaza Khabar on Disney+ Hotstar on September 27

Q. What new can we expect in Taaza Khabar 2?
Season 2 is bigger than Season 1. I also feel it is better. One was light and we were trying to get audiences acquainted with the universe. But in two, there's lots more happening and Jaaved Jaaferi is in it playing an antagonist. For me, he is a childhood icon, so it was great fun working with him.

Q. Your first show Dhindora was quite loved. When can we expect its Season 2?
I have written four episodes of Dhindora so far. As soon as Taaza Khabar is out on September 27, I will dive wholeheartedly into Dhindora, because comedy is something that requires your sole focus. The new season is totally centred around Titu Mama. We have already recorded a song with Udit Narayan for it.

Q. Your virality as a YouTuber has seen you meet some incredible people. Which have been your most incredible encounters?
I met former president Barack Obama, and told him how I play 17 characters on my channel. Then there was Shah Rukh Khan who praised me for my short Plus Minus. At a seminar in the US, I was on a panel with Snoop Dogg and attended his concert.

Q. Will Bhuvan Bam only work in shows produced and written by him or is he available to work with other banners?
It's my dream to see myself in a cinema hall. I'd also like to work with a big director and be part of a big star cast. I opened my own production house BB Ki Vines because I didn't want to be fooled by anyone. But, yes, I have no shame in auditioning for others.
