

30 YEARS OF NSE'S OPERATION: TRANSFORMING INDIA'S FINANCIAL LANDSCAPE

The National Stock Exchange of India (NSE) stands tall as the first line of regulator in the Indian securities markets, anchoring the element of trust that is very vital for the healthy development of the Capital Markets. It has been a foundation stone of India's transforming landscape of capital markets over the past 30 years. Since inception to now, NSE's growth in stature as a reputed global financial institution of trust reflects a legacy of innovation, transparency, and investor empowerment. This narrative traces the remarkable milestones that have defined its evolution and enduring impact.
