

OFF THE EATEN TRACK

Will travel for fine food? Tuck into our curated list of the best destination restaurants across India

By Priya Pathiyan

Food has always been such an integral part of the travel experience. And today, 'eating local' has become a rite of passage for those who want to be travellers not tourists. But there's a new high on the hip travellers' horizon, one that comes from scoring a table at one of the 'it' eateries in diverse destinations. Create value and they will come, brave chefs and restaurateurs in India find, as the 'will travel for food' brigade is ready to spend serious time, energy and money for that memorable, trip-worthy meal. Here's our pick of the top spots that are on the hotlist with their high-concept menus.

The Story of Trout, an offering at Naar (bottom, right)

PHOTOGRAPH BY BANDEEP SINGH