

REDEFINING THE LANDSCAPE OF HIGHER EDUCATION

"As we evolved as a group, we are at yet another interesting phase of education, which is not only dynamic but builds a unique innovative environment"- says the ebullient Founder Chancellor of Presidency University and Chairman of the Presidency Group of Institutions, Dr Nissar Ahmed.

The NEP 2020 has drawn the ancient strings into the modern definition of higher education and stress is back to universal and seamless education, skill based learning, vocational training and value based education. The new National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 has introduced transformative reforms aimed at reshaping India's education system to meet modern challenges. It prioritizes holistic, multidisciplinary education, a restructured school curriculum, and early childhood care. Its key initiatives include the promotion of online education and the establishment of a National Research Foundation. "As a group, Presidency group of institutions are sensitive and adaptive to the major realms of changes brought about by the paradigm shift in education. Four decades ago, we were evolving as a group and fitting into the postcolonial era of education and created a niche for the group doling out quality education in both the K-12 and higher education sector. As we evolved as a group, we are at yet another interesting phase of education, which is not only dynamic but builds a unique innovative environment.' says the ebullient Founder Chancellor of Presidency University and Chairman of the Presidency group of institutions, Dr Nissar Ahmed.

Participating actively and being at the forefront of the dynamic education scenario, the Presidency Group of Institutions (PGI) has become a beacon of educational excellence, reflecting India's evolving education landscape. Dr. Nissar Ahmed, an educationist and philanthropist, is the visionary behind PGI. His name resonates with academic excellence and social commitment. Dr. Ahmed's journey into the educational landscape of India began in 1976, at a time when the country was in dire need of high-quality education. Along with his uncle, Mr. Abdul Hameed, he established St. Paul's English School in Nandini Layout, Bengaluru. The sudden demise of his beloved uncle left
