Glitches in NTA

The agency has faced several controversies around the examinations it conducts since its inception

A CBI team at Nawada, Bihar

2020

- A girl from Madhya Pradesh was initially reported to have scored only 6 marks in NEET. However, after her death by suicide, her score was found to be 590
- Another student was initially declared to have scored very low marks, but on re-evaluation, he became the all-India topper among STs

2021

- A Russian national hacked into the JEE Main examination software, facilitating impersonation, and was arrested by the CBI. Twenty students were banned from taking exams for three years

2022

- CBI unearthed a racket involving impersonation during NEET exam. Then, at a centre in Kerala, female candidates were forced to remove their bras during a security check, causing outrage against NTA
- Many students faced technical issues during the JEE Main exam, leading to low scores

- The NEET UG exam gets embroiled in allegations of multiple irregularities, including the awarding of grace marks and question paper leaks. The case is handed over to CBI for investigation
- NET-UGC exam is cancelled after question paper leak on dark net
- CSIR-UGC exam is postponed as a precautionary measure
