

VAMSI KRISHNA GADDAM, 35 ▶

| CONGRESS | Peddapalle (SC), Telangana

Armed with a BS degree in management from Purdue University, US, Vamsi Krishna is now shepherding his family's Visaka Industries—which has interests in cement sheets, rooftop solar and much else—along with their media concerns. Theirs is a political family, grandfather G. Venkatswamy is a former Union minister and MLA father G. Vivek was the richest candidate in the 2023 state election. Vamsi, who has declared Rs 24 crore assets, is also a social entrepreneur and has set up an electric bike firm, Atumobile.

▲ PUTTA MAHESH KUMAR, 36

| TDP | Eluru, Andhra Pradesh

Scion of an influential political family, the civil engineer now also steers the family's construction business. Father Putta Sudhakar is a former chairman of the board of trustees of the Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams and was elected as Mydukur MLA in the simultaneous state election. Mahesh's political connections do not end there. His father-in-law, Yanamala Ramakrishnudu, is a former assembly speaker who was also a minister in TDP founder N.T. Rama Rao's cabinet.

▲ DHAIRYASHEEL MOHITE-PATIL, 47

| NCP (SP) | Madha, Maharashtra

Dhairyasheel is the nephew of former deputy CM and Solapur satrap Vijaysinh Mohite-Patil a.k.a. Baldada and helps his uncle manage the family's massive empire that spans from local politics to cooperatives. His father, Rajsinh a.k.a. Rajabhau, was also well-known for his work in the farming and dairy sector. The Mohite-Patils claim to be the descendants of Hambirrao Mohite, a general in Shivaji's army, and have kinship and marriage ties with politicians across party lines. The first-time MP declared assets worth Rs 48.9 crore.

▲ RAMASAHAYAM RAGHURAM REDDY, 63

| CONGRESS | Khammam, Telangana

Known as RRR in close circles, he is the son of former MP and Gandhi family acolyte Ramasahayam Surender Reddy. Apart from steering the family business in construction and infrastructure development, Reddy is associated with the Hyderabad Public School (as vice-chairman of its board) and Hyderabad Club (as a director) and has declared assets worth Rs 58 crore. Despite being new to politics—he was a last-minute choice for the seat—RRR won by a record margin of 467,000-plus votes.