

RAJEEV RAI, 54 ▶

| SP | Ghosi, Uttar Pradesh

Considered close to Samajwadi Party supremo Akhilesh Yadav, Rai bested UP minister and SBSP chief O.P. Rajbhar's son in the election. The founder-chairman of the Bengaluru-based AVK Group of institutions, he has declared assets worth Rs 49 crore. A national spokesperson of the party, Rai has had the income tax department come knocking at his door several times in recent years.

▶ RADHAKRISHNA DODDAMANI, 63

| CONGRESS | Gulbarga (SC), Karnataka

A debutant in electoral politics, Doddamani is the son-in-law of Mallikarjun Kharge, the AICC president who had earned the Kannada sobriquet Solillada Sardara—the chief who hasn't seen defeat. But that changed in 2019 when Kharge lost his Gulbarga seat to the BJP's Umesh Jadhav. As it played out, Doddamani—a businessman-turned-politician who, with his doctor-wife Jayashree, has declared assets worth Rs 53.4 crore—defeated Jadhav to win back his father-in-law's bastion.

SHREYAS PATEL, 33 ▼

| CONGRESS | Hassan, Karnataka

A BBM graduate, Shreyas defeated sitting Hassan MP and sex scandal accused Prajwal Revanna. A year ago, the rice mill owner with declared assets of Rs 42.7 crore had lost the state election to Prajwal's father H.D. Revanna after two similar bids made by his mother, Anupama Mahesh. It's an old political rivalry between the two families in Hassan. In 1999, Shreyas's grandfather, G. Puttaswamy Gowda, had wrested the bastion from Prajwal's grandfather and former prime minister H.D. Deve Gowda, albeit for a single term.

◀ SHIV PAL SINGH PATEL, 68

| SP | Pratapgarh, Uttar Pradesh

Kurmi leader Shiv Pal is the founder-chairman of Lucknow Public Schools and Colleges, a chain of premium educational institutions in north India. Once a functionary in the party's teachers' wing, he is also a former member of the UP legislative council (2002-14) and has declared Rs 46.6 crore in assets, which include buildings and land parcels worth over Rs 30 crore.

◀ PRAVEEN KHANDELWAL, 63

| BJP | Chandni Chowk, Delhi

Khandelwal founded the association, Confederation of All India Traders, and has been a vocal opponent of the 'unfair practices' adopted by e-commerce firms. He's also been a member of the NDA government's GST panel and the Open Network for Digital Commerce (ONDC). Khandelwal runs a hardware business and has assets worth Rs 11.7 crore.
