

RAJWNAT RAWAT

assembly, Alfred was instrumental in improving the infrastructure and quality of government-run educational institutes and hospitals in Ukhrul, the constituency he represented between 2017 and 2022. Now, as the MP of the Outer Manipur constituency, this young Naga politician aspires to make a mark in national politics.

▼ PRANITI SHINDE, 43

| CONGRESS | Solapur (SC), Maharashtra

Praniti inherits the mantle of this SC reserved constituency from her father, the veteran Congressman Sushilkumar Shinde, a former Maharashtra CM, the Union power and home minister and the governor of Andhra Pradesh. Having lost the seat twice, once in a shock defeat to little-known BJP nominee Sharad Sonawane in 2014, and to Lingayat seer Jaisiddheshwar Mahaswami in 2019, Shinde handed it to Praniti this time, who avenged his humiliation by defeating Ram Satpute of the BJP.

▲ ISHA KHAN CHOUDHURY, 53

| CONGRESS | Maldaha Dakshin, West Bengal

If your uncle was the venerable A.B.A. Ghani Khan Choudhury and your father former Union minister Abu Hasem Khan Choudhury, the weight of legacy might sit heavy on your shoulders. But not on Isha Khan Choudhury, a graduate from York University. He was the MLA of Baisnabnagar between 2011 and 2016 and of Sujapur between 2016 and 2021. Now, as the only Congress MP from Bengal, it is his responsibility to keep his party's toehold intact.

▲ ANITA SUBHADARSHINI, 51

| BJP | Aska, Odisha

Be it degree or pedigree, Anita Subhadarshini has it all. An advocate and a tutor, she has an MA in Political Science and an LLB from the Kalinga Law College. She is the daughter of veteran leader and ex-minister Ram Krushna Patnaik, who was a close associate of both Biju and Naveen Patnaik, but joined the BJP in 2014. And it is on a saffron ticket that Anita won, her second attempt from Aska.
