But this rhetorical line, not an unfamiliar one, is facing a vehement pushback from several quarters—eminent alumni, historians, students as well as the Opposition Biju Janata Dal (BJD). Established in 1868, just two years after the famine, Ravenshaw College, which became a state university in 2006, served as the "temple of learning" for many a literary and cultural Odia stalwart, most of the state's former chief ministers, including Biju Patnaik, and numerous administrators.

Sahadeva Sahoo, a former Odisha chief secretary, is one such alumnus. He attributes Ravenshaw's failure during the famine to infrastructural and logistical issues. "Ravenshaw did enough for the people [of Odisha] and the language," he says. "Hindu philosophy teaches us to forgive one's past if he makes amends." Ravenshaw, in fact, established the first high school in Odisha—Ravenshaw Collegiate School—in 1851, 15 years before the famine, besides a high school for girls in 1873. Moreover, it was the then Maharaja of Mayurbhanj who in 1978 had insisted that the Cuttack College be named after the British administrator, commemorating his contributions to the cause of education in Odisha.

Historian Nivedita Mohanty, author of the book Ravenshaw College: Orissa's Temple of Learning, calls this academic institution the seat of the Odia renaissance, which ultimately led to the creation of the separate state of Odisha in 1936. BJD legislator Kalikesh Narayan Singh Deo concurs, saying the British civil servant pioneered the process of "freeing the Odia language" from the domination of Bengali. Deo accuses the BJP—which has only recently come to power in Odisha—of initiating an "unnecessary and ill-timed controversy" to divert attention from its "failures" to fulfil its multiple pre-poll promises. But representing a wider renaming spree undertaken by the BJP-ruled central and state governments over the past decade, this controversy might not die down anytime soon. ■

An investor education initiative by

LIC MUTUAL FUND

Multicap Funds

A Diversified Investment Tool

Multicap Funds invest in stocks across market capitalization with minimum mandated investment of 25%in each segment (Largecap, Midcap and Smallcap) that may make your investment more diverse and spread out.

Benefits:

1. Diversify Risks
   Invests in stocks across market caps.
2. All Inclusive Growth
   Aims to invest in diverse businesses irrespective of the scale of operations.
3. Limited Bias
   Mandated 25% allocation in each market cap restricts Fund Manager discretion & potential biases.

Diverse Investment In :-

- Solidity of Largecaps
- Growth of Midcaps
- Potential of Smallcaps

Suitable For Investors:

- With objective of long term wealth creation
- With focused diversification in Equity Market
- With Investment Horizon of 5 yrs & above

Start Investing Today and Watch Your Money Work For You!

To know more, you may consult your Financial Advisor

Mutual Fund investors need to complete the Know Your Customer (KYC) process, which can be done by submitting completed KYC Form along with the required documents at any AMC's branch Office or Official Points of Acceptance. Please refer https://niveshguru.licmf.com/KYCredressal.aspx to know about KYC documentary requirement, procedure for change of address, phone number, bank details etc. The investors are cautioned to invest only with SEBI registered Mutual Funds, the details of which can be verified on SEBI's website under 'Intermediaries / Market Infrastructure Institutions' (https://www.sebi.gov.in/intermediaries.html.) For any complaints and grievance redressal, investors can contact the Investor Relations Officer of the respective AMC and if not satisfied with the resolution given by the AMC, he/she can approach SEBI by registering the complaint on SEBI SCORES Portal (https://scores.sebi.gov.in/) and/or escalate the compliant through Online Dispute Resolution Portal (https://smartodr.in/login).

MUTUAL FUND INVESTMENTS ARE SUBJECT TO MARKET RISKS, READ ALL SCHEME RELATED DOCUMENTS CAREFULLY.