ROOHI (2021)

Budget: ₹35 CR
B.O. returns : ₹23 CR

Rare blip in the horcom universe, its release date—March 11, 2021, right in the midst of the pandemic, when theatres had just 50 per cent occupancy—was a factor in its underperformance. Roohi's (Jaanhvi Kapoor) abductors plans go awry as they contend with a female demon, Afza, who possesses her

MUNJYA (2024)

Budget: ₹30 CR
B.O. returns: ₹127 CR

Munjya, a child goblin, makes life miserable for Bittu (Abhay Verma in his first lead role) as he pesters and demands that he unite him with Bittu's childhood love Bela (Sharvari Wagh). Set in Pune, the film takes a Maharashtrian folklore about a spirit that resides in a peepal tree and also touches on a woman's agency to choose her own partner

BHOOL BHULAIYAA 2 (2022)

Budget: ₹90 CR
B.O. returns: ₹181.65 CR

Fifteen years after Vidya Balan's Manjulika and Akshay Kumar drew copious laughs in the original, which in turn was a remake of 1993 Malayalam film Manichitrathazhu, Kartik Aaryan took over the franchise playing Rooh Baba who fights a vengeful spirit in an abandoned mansion. Tabu's a scene-stealer here

BHEDIYA (2022)

Budget: ₹23 CR
B.O. returns: ₹70 CR

Taking the Arunachal folklore of a shape-shifting werewolf called yapum, director Amar Kaushik and writer Niren Bhatt spin an engaging tale that touches on the perils of deforestation and emphasises acceptance and coexistence, and all with good humour

STREE 2 (2024)

Budget: ₹100 CR
B.O. returns: ₹530 CR

Bicky and his bro gang—Bittu (Aparshakti Khurana), Rudra (Varun Dhawan) and Jana (Abhishek Banerjee)—have to save the town from the misogynist headless monster Sarkata who kidnaps women at night. Like Terminator 2, the source of terror in Part 1 becomes saviour in Part 2

Note: Budget figures don't include publicity and advertising