SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

In her budget speech, Union finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman outlined the government's economic agenda—to create opportunities for citizens, especially the youth and fulfil their aspirations, provide strong impetus to growth and job creation, and strengthen macro-economic stability. The focus has been on capital expenditure, with the transport sector getting the highest hike in expenditure allocation with some relief to the middle class in tax liabilities. Here is a look at the budget's focus areas, important policy announcements and likely impact of the new tax regime
