HOT AIR BALLOON - October to May

When in Goa, all visitors rush to the beach or a vantage point to enjoy her sunsets where the golden sun gradually bends down to kiss the earth. Now Goa gives one and all the opportunity to watch the sun as it rises and tries to catch your soaring hot air balloon!

Your day begins at 6:30 am. As the balloon slowly rises with the sun from Assolda, a village in hinterland Quepem, watch the fields, tree tops and houses as birds do. Then float higher and higher like an eagle, catching the distant hills. Soar higher still till you achieve a peak elevation of 2000 feet and feel like a star, gazing at the earth, bathed in the early morning glow. Then fly like a bird as the wind takes you on your once-in-a-lifetime experience in Goa, covered in golden hues! And before you know it, the one hour is up!

This hot air balloon flight over Goa is chartered by a professional pilot who will give you a safety briefing before departure. Each flight will allow a maximum of 14 people per booking. This service operates from October 10 to May 10.

WHITE WATER RIVER RAFTING - June to September

One of the action-packed experiences of the Goan monsoons is white water rafting. Goa Rafting brings you the enthralling Mhadei Rafting Trip. As you rock and roll in tune with the turbulent waters, enjoy the pristine jungle of the Mhadei Wildlife Sanctuary dash by. It is the perfect time to soak in the refreshing rain and ride the waves of the gorgeously moody Mhadei River!

This is a perfect activity for adventure enthusiasts, and one of the most thrilling activities in Goa. The rafting trips are operated by Southern River Adventures and Sports Pvt Ltd., which has been a pioneering rafting company in South India. Run by Englishman John Pollard, who has had 25 years of rafting experience all over the world without any major accidents, we won't be wrong in saying that in this case rafting is 'safer than the bus'!

BUNGY JUMPING - September to May

For those who enjoy living on the edge, or more accurately, off it, thrill seekers in Goa can now enjoy a whole new adventure to get their pulse racing. We're talking about the absolutely incredible experience of bungy jumping! Enjoy the thrill of freefall in two permanent bungy sites on two ends of Goa. The first can be found at Mayem Lake, North Goa, and is operated by Jumpin Heights, the Bungy People, an operator that has completed over 1,00,000 jumps since its inception in 2010 in Rishikesh and has earned recognition from the Union Ministry of Tourism for its international safety standards.

The second, newer site can be found at Quedem in South Goa. It is organized by Indya Bungy with the aim to give Indians a taste of gravity. Both sites adhere to stringent safety standards of Australia and New
