DIRECTORATE
MAHARASHTRA
TOURISM

MAHARASHTRA

THE LAND OF ENCHANTING MOUNTAIN RANGES, HILLS AND DALES

Maharashtra, a state known for its diverse landscapes and rich cultural heritage, is home to the majestic Western Ghats. This mountain range runs parallel to the western coast, offering a series of picturesque hill stations that provide a perfect escape from the bustling city life. Presenting some of the most captivating yet diverse hill stations of Maharashtra.

AMBOLI
Sindhudurg

The 'Queen of Maharashtra' is a serene hill station nestled in the Sahyadri hills. Known for its heavy monsoon rains and lush greenery, Amboli is the source of the Hiranyakeshi River. This peaceful, lesser-visited destination is ideal for nature lovers, offering numerous trekking trails, an ancient Shiva temple, and breathtaking views of the Sahyadri range.

How to go : Road: Mumbai - 487 km | Rail: Sawantwadi – 30 km | Air: Goa Mopa – 30 km

Nearby Sights: Nangarta Falls, Durg Dhakoba Trekking Trail.

TORANMAL
Nandurbar

Perched in the Satpura range, this tranquil hill station is named after the Torana plant and the tribal Goddess Torana. This destination boasts varied flora and fauna, holy shrines, and challenging treks. Its scenic charm and serene lakes make Toranmal a perfect getaway, especially during the monsoons.

How to go: Road: Mumbai - 461 km | Rail: Nandurbar – 77 km | Air: Aurangabad – 300 km

Nearby Sights: Forest Park & Medicinal Plant Garden, Torna Devi Temple, Yashavant Lake.

IGATPURI
Nashik

Located in the Nashik district, it is one of Maharashtra's most popular hill retreats. Ideal for adventure sports enthusiasts and nature lovers, Igatpuri features waterfalls, lakes, and lush forests. It is also home to the Vipassana International Academy, attracting visitors for meditation. Activities like rock climbing and trekking, along with the surrounding Sahyadri peaks, offer a rejuvenating escape.

How to go: Road: Mumbai - 121 km | Rail: Igatpuri

Nearby Sights: Girisagar Waterfalls, Amruteshwar Temple, Camel Valley, Vihigoan Waterfalls.

AMBOLI

LONAVALA & KHANDALA
Pune

These twin hill stations in the Pune district have been popular tourist spots for decades. Known as the 'Jewel of Sahyadri,' Lonavala and Khandala offer spectacular views, ancient caves, and natural waterfalls. Located on the Mumbai-Pune expressway, these hill stations are perfect for a weekend getaway, offering stunning sunsets and a variety of fun activities.

How to go: Road: Mumbai - 83 km | Rail: Lonavala & Khandala

Nearby Sights: Pawna Lake, Lion's Point, Karla Caves, Bhaja Caves.

BHANDARDARA
Ahmednagar

Home to Mount Kalsubai, Maharashtra's highest peak. Bhandardara offers panoramic views and a soothing environment year-round, making it an ideal destination for

The incredible potential of hill stations in Maharashtra, highlighting their significance as not only popular tourist destinations but also vital contributors to the state's economy and cultural heritage. These hill stations, which include renowned locations such as Mahabaleshwar, Lonavala, and Matheran, offer breathtaking natural beauty, lush greenery, and a unique climate that attract visitors from across the country and beyond. The tourism department is committed to promoting sustainable tourism practices that safeguard the environment while enhancing the overall visitor experience. Our aim is to create awareness about the pristine landscapes and rich biodiversity of Maharashtra's hill stations, ensuring that they are preserved for future generations to enjoy." These destinations provide the perfect escape from urban life, allowing tourists to immerse themselves in nature and explore a plethora of adventure activities, from trekking to paragliding. Furthermore, The importance of developing infrastructure and connectivity to these hill stations, which would not only facilitate easier access for travelers but also pave the way for local communities to benefit economically through tourism-related initiatives. We invite both domestic and international tourists to discover the hidden gems of Maharashtra's hill stations, where they can experience unparalleled tranquility and the warm hospitality of local residents, thereby fostering a deeper understanding and appreciation of the region's rich cultural tapestry.

SMT. JAYSHREE BHOJ, I.A.S, Secretary, Tourism Department, Govt. Of Maharashtra