
MATHERAN

CHIKHALDARA

MAHABALESHWAR

TORANMAL

nature lovers and adventure seekers.
How to go: Road: Mumbai -165 km | Rail: Igatpuri – 42 km
Nearby Sights: Agastya Rishi Ashram, Randha Falls, Sandhan Valley.

MALSHEJ GHAT
Thane
With its lakes, waterfalls, and valleys, Malshej Ghat is an ideal escape from city life. Famous for pink flamingos and lush greenery, this region is perfect for trekkers and nature lovers, offering scenic treks and ancient forts amid the rugged hills of the Western Ghats.
How to go: Road: Mumbai - 127 km | Rail: Kalyan – 85 km
Nearby Sights: Khireshwar, Harishchandragad, Pimpalgaon Joga Dam, Shivneri Fort, Malshej Falls.

MAHABALESHWAR
Satara
One of Maharashtra's most popular hill stations, it offers captivating views of the Western Ghats. Known for its strawberry farms, scenic sunrises, and lush forests, Mahabaleshwar provides a perfect respite with its pleasant climate and natural beauty.
How to go: Road: Mumbai - 231 km | Rail: Satara – 45 km
Nearby Sights: Arthur's Point, Wilson Point, Babington Point, Connaught Peak, Tiger's Spring Point, Elphinstone Point, Pratapgad Fort, Venna Lake, Mahabaleshwar Temple, Lingmala Falls, Dhobi Waterfall, Panchganga Temple.

PANCHGANI
Satara
Developed by the British, Panchgani is named after the five surrounding hills. Close to Mahabaleshwar, it offers fresh air, towering mountains and serene valleys. With a rich history, adventure activities, and beautiful landscapes, Panchgani is a must-visit for any traveler.
How to go: Road: Mumbai - 244 km | Rail: Satara – 49 km
Nearby Sights: Mahabaleshwar, Kate's Point Sydney Point, Tribal Devrai Art Village.

WAI
Satara
Wai is known for its temples and scenic views along the Krishna River. Called 'Dakshin Kashi', it boasts over 100 temples and is a perfect spot for a weekend getaway. Wai's historical significance and natural beauty make it a delightful stopover on the way to Panchgani or Mahabaleshwar.
How to go: Road: Mumbai - 230 km | Rail: Satara – 36 km
Nearby Sights: Kindergad Fort, Pandavgad Fort, Menawali Ghat, Panchgani.

MHAISMAL
Aurangabad
Mhaismal is a lesser-known hill station offering serene landscapes. Known as the 'Mahabaleshwar of Marathwada,' it is ideal for a monsoon visit with lush green scenery and a variety of flora and fauna. Mhaismal is perfect for those seeking a peaceful break from urban life.
How to go: Road: Mumbai - 331 km | Rail: Aurangabad – 35 km
Nearby Sights: Girijamata Temple, Mini Balaji Temple, Ellora Caves, Daulatabad Fort, Tomb of Aurangazeb.

GAGANBAWADA
Sindhudurg
Gaganbawada, an offbeat weekend getaway. Known for its heavy monsoon rains and lush greenery, it has recently gained popularity as a film shooting location.
How to go: Road: Mumbai - 430 km | Rail: Vaibhavwadi – 18 km
Nearby Sights: Karul Ghat & Bhuibawada Ghat, Palsambe Caves, Napne Waterfalls, Morjai Temple.

TAMHINI GHAT
Pune
Tamhini Ghat, a mountain passage between Mulshi and Tamhini, offers magnificent views, waterfalls, and lakes. Activities like trekking, river rafting, and enjoying the cool breeze make Tamhini Ghat a memorable destination.
How to go: Road: Mumbai - 161 km | Rail: Pune – 53 km
Nearby Sights: Kolad, Mulshi, Tamhini Waterfalls, Mulshi Dam & Lake.

CHIKHALDARA
Amravati
The the only hill retreat in the Vidarbha region is known for its mention in the Mahabharata and as the only coffee-growing area in the region. It offers rich flora and fauna. Chikhaldara's wildlife, including a growing tiger population, makes it a great destination for nature lovers.
How to go: Road: Mumbai - 673 km | Rail: Badnera – 90 km
Nearby Sights: Narnala Fort, Amner Fort, Gugumal National Park, Gavilgad Fort.

MATHERAN
Raigad
Matheran is Asia's only automobile-free hill station. Developed by the British, it offers a peaceful escape with no pollution and beautiful views. Matheran's narrow lanes and serene environment provide a unique experience for those looking to get lost in nature.
How to go: Road: Mumbai - 83 km | Rail: Neral – 21 km
Nearby Sights: Prabalgad Fort, Ambarnath Temple, Panorama Point, Monkey Point, Irshalgad Fort.

PANHALA
Kolhapur
Panhala is historically significant due to its connection to Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. With breathtaking views and a peaceful atmosphere, Panhala is a popular destination for tourists interested in history and nature.
How to go: Road: Mumbai - 370 km | Rail: Kolhapur – 30 km
Nearby Sights: Rankala Lake, Mahalakshmi Temple, Vishalgad.

Hill stations have long been synonymous with romance, offering a serene escape from city life. Surrounded by lush greenery and often shrouded in mist, these retreats provide an intimate and tranquil atmosphere.

Maharashtra beckons you with a treasure trove of hill stations that envelop you with their natural beauty and serenity. Each destination offers a unique experience, making them perfect for anyone looking to reconnect with nature.