GIRL POWER

It's raining Triptii Dimri films. With Vicky aur Vidya Ka Woh Wala Video, Bhool Bhulaiyya 3 and Dhadak 2 lined up, she is the new 'it girl' of Hindi cinema

Q. How much did you resonate with the character of Vidya?
She is a totally different personality. Off screen, I am shy and reserved. Vidya is a patakha [firecracker]. Vicky aur Vidya...is an out-and-out comedy. I feel comedy is the toughest genre. You have to feed off the energy of the co-actor which is something you can only do on set.

Q. There's the Triptii who shined in independent films like Laila Majnu, Qala and Bulbul. Then there's the one we saw in Animal. Who's the real one?
They are both real. As actors, it is important to keep challenging ourselves and do different kinds of roles. With Bulbul and Qala, I'd found my comfort zone. Whatever commercial films I got–my first Dharma film [Bad Newz] and Animal–were because of those films. In them, I spent months prepping, while with commercial, it's spontaneous.

Q. What do you attribute your success to?
You have to be patient and have faith in yourself. When I started off in 2016, I promised myself I would not leave the city [Mumbai] without becoming an actor whom people love. When I look back now, I feel proud. There will be struggles going forward but I think I will sail through them.

Q. Post Animal, is there a change in your role choices?
I don't want to be stuck doing one role because I know I will get bored. When you go on set, you've got to be pumped and feel 'let's see what will happen today'. You have to be clueless and nervous, and that only happens when you do something new.

–with Suhani Singh

Photograph by BANDEEP SINGH