RYAN GROUP OF INSTITUTIONS EMPOWERING THE NATION THROUGH EDUCATION: THE INSPIRING JOURNEY OF DR. GRACE PINTO

Dr. Grace Pinto, Managing Director of Ryan Group of Institutions, has made remarkable contributions to education and social service. Passionate about teaching and children's development, she has dedicated herself to making education accessible across India, establishing the Ryan Group as a beacon of holistic education.

Dr. Grace Pinto, the illustrious Managing Director of the Ryan Group of Institutions, stands as a paragon of dedication in the realms of education and social service. With a profound humility, she attributes her myriad achievements to the divine guidance of God Almighty Jesus Christ. Dr. Pinto's journey from a passionate teacher to an influential leader underscores her belief that life's experiences anchor us firmly while enabling us to soar to greater heights. She epitomizes leadership in action, steadfastly advocating for the empowerment of the nation through the transformative power of education.

Reflecting on the Economic Survey 2023-24, Dr. Pinto emphasizes the critical role of education in harnessing the potential of India's burgeoning youth population, 65% of which is under the age of 35. "Many of these young individuals," she notes, "lack the skills necessary for a modern economy. Education is pivotal in equipping this youth to drive social, economic, and political development in India. Our Group of Schools is committed to providing holistic education, preparing our children to emerge as leaders who will elevate our nation to unprecedented heights, positioning it as a global leader."

Dr. Pinto's career commenced with an unwavering passion for teaching and a deep-seated interest in children's development. Together with her husband, Dr. A. F. Pinto, she embarked on a mission to make education accessible and affordable to children across the nation. Their tireless efforts led to the establishment of numerous learning centers, reaching even the remotest areas of India. Garnering immense support from stakeholders, the Ryan Group flourished under their visionary leadership, steadfastly pursuing the mission of "Excellence in Education and All-Round Development," nurturing value-laden citizens and future nation-builders.

Dr. Grace Pinto
Managing Director
Ryan Group of Institutions

A staunch advocate of lifelong learning, Dr. Pinto believes that education should transcend the confines of classrooms and textbooks, extending into art, culture, and international relations. Under her aegis, the Ryan Group has pioneered several ground-breaking initiatives, both national and international. The International Theatre Festival and the Indian Model United Nations (INMUN) have significantly enhanced students' communication, critical thinking, and leadership skills. The group has also set a record with its participation in the prestigious World Scholar's Cup. Furthermore, international cultural exchange programs and partnerships with institutions like PennHub have broadened higher education opportunities for Ryan Group students.

Dr. Pinto's commitment to holistic development extends to sports, where collaborations with professionals have provided a robust platform for sports-loving children to excel at national and international levels. Celebrating the achievements of alumni like Chirag Shetty, a Gold Medalist at the Asian Games and World No.1 in Badminton Doubles, Aishwarya Mishra, a Silver Medalist in the 4x400 Relay, and Parneet Kaur, a Gold Medalist in Archery at the Asian Games 2023, exemplifies the fruits of her endeavors. Additionally, the establishment of media studies programs with state-of-the-art in-house studios offers world-class training in media and journalism to young minds.

Dr. Grace Pinto embodies service, commitment, and charity, drawing inspiration from Mother Teresa in her outreach to society's underprivileged and needy. Her dedication to social causes is remarkable, championing the welfare of senior citizens, women's empowerment, and the upliftment of the girl child. Under her leadership, the Ryan Group of Institutions aspires to revolutionize student learning by leveraging technology, transforming schools into dynamic, engaging environments that benefit students, teachers, stakeholders, and the broader community, thus contributing to the betterment of cities, states, and the nation at large.
