defame that ED? Cash was found in an MP's house. How can you deny it? Tell me, if I make a big drug haul, won't you appreciate it? If the ED does it, it is criticised. Why? Because it was caught from a neta's house.

Q: And you think it should apply equally to everyone?
Anyone, irrespective of background. My fight is against corruption. It is wreaking havoc on the country, destroying it.

Q: The Congress is more focused on employment. Its Nyay Patra has promised 30 lakh jobs, 1 lakh rupees to the educated youth. Your focus is on beneficiaries.
If the central government is responsible for employment, so is the state government, and the local government. So, I should have very little responsibility. Even so, if you talk of fulfilling promises...recently, the employment records have come... the microfinance in 10 years has generated jobs. Do you not consider it employment? There are 10-12 central schemes on the basis of which they have made this analysis. So, if you build a house, you must be getting that many person-hours of employment. If we add all these things, you are getting six crore new jobs; that is on record. Also, we gave out individual MUDRA loans to 43 crore people. In that, 70 per cent are those who are getting employed for the first time.

Q: Recently there was a report by the international economist Thomas Piketty, in which he said that income inequality is on the rise in India. That India's growth is K-shaped, people at the top are getting richer and those at the bottom poorer. How do you view this?
So everyone should be poor. That is one solution; there will be no difference then. This is how it was earlier. Now you say everyone should be rich. So, will it happen slowly or will everyone become rich overnight? Some will become rich and pull up others. There is a process. Today, 10 people move forward, tomorrow 100 will, and the day after that 500 more will move ahead.

Q: Rahul Gandhi is accusing you of being friends with big business—with Ambani and Adani.
Nehru's government was called the Tata-Birla sarkar. The problem with this family is that it believes Modi too should be abused like their grandfather. Why did they rake up Rafale? They thought that if they raised Rafale, it would wash away the sins of Bofors. They have never worked so hard as they have in this election. Why? They think if Modi wins a third term, 'then my father will lose all respect, my grandmother will lose respect, he will become equal to Nehru'. That is why they have borrowed these abuses from somewhere. Secondly, and I have said this from the Red Fort...that I have immense respect for capable people, wealth creators. I am not helping the rich. They are the pride of my nation. For the bright future of my country, I have the same respect for the sweat of the labourer as for the wealth of the rich.

Q: When the labharthis get benefits, no one asks them if they are Hindu or Muslim. If that is so, why bring up mangalsutra, infiltrators, 'more kids' in election rallies? The Opposition accuses you of practising Hindu-Muslim politics.
They were following a completely communal agenda and I exposed it. Their ecosystem suppresses that basic fact. Instead, they amplify what I say, so it seems I do 'Musalman Musalman' all the time. This is not the point. The point is that they have written in their manifesto that now they will bring the minority even in the contract system. The contract will be given to the minority. If I oppose that contract, I am being secular. But because I have to use the word minority or Muslim, or alpasankhyak, you think I am attacking Muslims. I am not attacking them. I am attacking those political parties who are making a mockery of secularism, indulging in appeasement politics. They are destroying the spirit of the Constitution. I have proof that I don't do it. How? I talk of 100 per cent saturation. If there are 700 people in a village and 100 people are eligible for a certain scheme, I believe all of them should
