

TATA SONS OWNERSHIP

have three children, Leah, Maya and Neville, all of whom are associated with the group companies: Leah with Indian Hotels; Neville with Trent, as the head of Star Bazaar, its hypermarket unit; while Maya reportedly played a role in the launch of the Tata Neu app.

Now, Noel will sit at the helm of Tata Trusts, with an executive committee under him to supervise its functioning. It comprises Venu Srinivasan, chairman emeritus of TVS Motor Company, and former bureaucrat Vijay Singh as vice chairmen; and Mehli Mistry, a close confidant of Ratan Tata and a cousin of Cyrus Mistry and Aloo Tata, as trustee. Siddharth Sharma is the CEO.

Philanthropic Giant

The activities of Tata Trusts began with the setting up of the JN Tata Endowment for the Higher Education of Indians by Tata Group founder Jamsetji Tata in 1892. At present, Tata Trusts comprises two major trusts: Sir Ratan Tata Trust and Sir Dorabji Tata Trust, named after the sons of Jamsetji Tata and each housing several other trusts such as the Tata Education and Development Trust, Navajbai Ratan Tata Trust, Sarvajanik Seva Trust, Tata Education Trust and the JRD Tata Trust (see What Noel Tata Will Oversee). Spanning across sectors, including health, nutrition, education, water, sanitation, hygiene and livelihood,
