

VICTORY VIBES Uttar Pradesh CM Yogi Adityanath

UTTAR PRADESH

YOGI WINS BATTLE OF SLOGANS

Yogi Adityanath's divisive call trumps SP chief Akhilesh Yadav's unity narrative

Byelections in: 9 seats | Won by: NDA 7; SP 2

The atmosphere at the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) state office in Lucknow was electric on November 23. As the BJP surged ahead in the byelection results for nine assembly seats in Uttar Pradesh, leaders and workers gathered in droves, celebrating to the beat of drums. By 3 pm, with the BJP-led alliance's victory confirmed in seven seats, the celebrations hit a crescendo as Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath arrived, marking the moment with firecrackers and reiterating his slogan, "batenge to katenge" (Divided, we perish).

The BJP's decisive victory is the result of a meticulously crafted strategy centred around Yogi's leadership, which was facing intense scrutiny after a lacklustre performance in the recent Lok

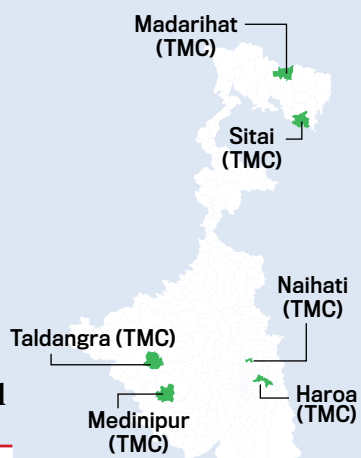

DRUMMING UP SUPPORT West Bengal CM Mamata Banerjee

WEST BENGAL

Mamata Endures

The R.G. Kar incident fails to sway the voters as the ruling TMC tightens its grip over Bengal

Byelections in: 6 seats | Won by: TMC

Photographs: ANI