THE CONTROVERSY...

QUICK BAIL: The 17-year-old was granted bail by the Juvenile Justice Board (JJB), reportedly within 15 hours of his arrest, with flimsy penalties–like writing an essay. He allegedly also got 'special treatment' at the Yerawada police station

THE AGE FACTOR: The legal age for liquor consumption in Maharashtra is 21 years (for mild liquor) and 25 (for hard liquor). Yet, he was served liquor at two pubs. Being underage, he did not have a driving licence either

TAMPERING WITH EVIDENCE: When taken for a medical test at the state-run Sassoon General Hospital, the juvenile's blood sample was allegedly thrown into a dustbin and replaced with that of an individual who had not consumed alcohol

ROAD ACCIDENTS BY TYPE OF LICENCE HOLDERS*

- Valid driving licence 69.4%
- Learner's licence 4%
- Without valid licence 7.8%
- Not known 18.8%

THE CAR...

NO NUMBER PLATE: The Porsche Taycan, worth around Rs 2 crore, didn't have a permanent number plate. It was running without registration since March due to a pending fee of Rs 1,758

HOW THE NIGHT UNFOLDED...

1 9.30 PM, MAY 18 The teenager (aged 17 years and eight months), along with a group of friends, enters restaurant-bar Cosie in Pune's Mundhwa neighbourhood to celebrate his Class 12 results

2 AROUND MIDNIGHT: The restaurant refuses to serve them any more alcohol. According to the police, the minor pays the bill using his father's credit card and leaves with his friends

3 TILL 1 AM, MAY 19: The group then goes to Blak Club in the same locality, where they allegedly consume more alcohol. They leave the place around 1 am
