IN THE DOCK...

THE BOY: Remanded by the JJB to an observation home till June 5

HIS FAMILY: Father arrested for allowing the juvenile access to the car, exposing him and others to danger; grandfather for pressuring the family driver to take blame

PUBS: Both sealed for serving liquor to the teen; five men–an owner besides two staffers each–arrested for violation

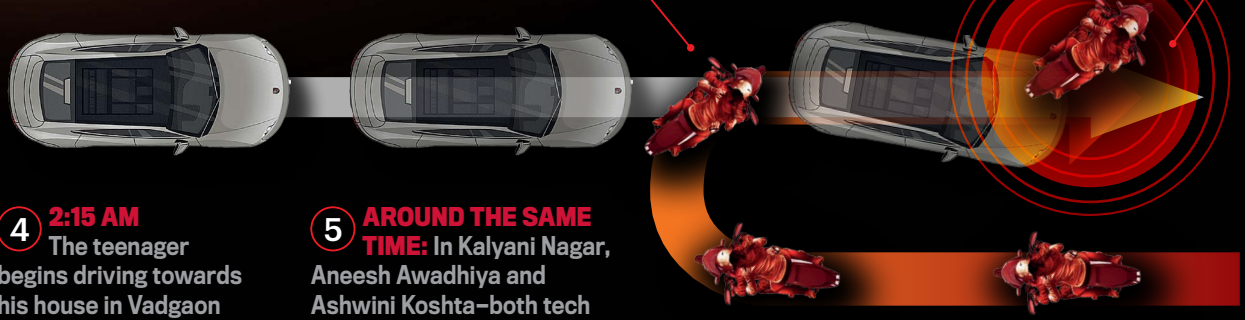

DOCTORS: Two doctors and a peon held for alleged manipulation of blood reports

POLICE: Two cops posted at Yerawada police station suspended for not calling the PCR after reaching the accident spot

WHAT NOW...

If the sessions court clears the teen's trial as a major, he can face a full term of punishment–10 years for culpable homicide not amounting to murder–if convicted. While the police await the court's nod, he will face trial before the JJB once the chargesheet is filed

6 2.30 AM: The drunk teenager allegedly loses control of the speeding car and rams into the bike. Ashwini, the pillion rider, is flung 20 feet into the air; she dies on the spot. Aneesh is shifted to a hospital, where he succumbs to his injuries. The teen is beaten up by the gathered crowd and later handed over to police

4 2:15 AM The teenager begins driving towards his house in Vadgaon Sheri in the Porsche, allegedly a birthday gift from his grandfather

5 AROUND THE SAME TIME: In Kalyani Nagar, Aneesh Awadhiya and Ashwini Koshta–both tech professionals, aged 24 years–are on their way back from a party on a Bajaj Pulsar
