SWIFT TACTICAL AIRLIFTS TO THE BORDER

The Indian Air Force strengthens its ability to deploy at short notice men and materiel to its northern borders, especially the one with China, thanks to an expanding network of all-weather landing grounds, demonstrated most recently by the night landing of an IAF C-130J transport aircraft at the high-altitude Kargil airfield

By Pradip R. Sagar

OF PERFECT LANDINGS
A C-130J Super Hercules transport aircraft of the IAF lands at Daulat Beg Oldie airfield in Ladakh; inset, the landmark night landing at Kargil airfield in January