

Pentha Beach inside the Bhitarkanika National Park, which is a Ramsar Site and the second-largest mangrove ecosystem of India. Do not miss the opportunity to go on a boat safari along the creeks of Bhitarkanika to spot the birds. Go on a kip to the nearby turtle sanctuary at Gahirmatha Beach where the Olive Ridley turtles come to nest every year.

SONAPUR

The southernmost beach in Odisha is located on the confluence of the river Bahuda and the Bay of Bengal, and is one of the most exquisite beaches on the east coast of India. Lounge on the beach, enjoy some water sports activities or gorge on delicious sea food. Nearby attractions include the port town of Berhampur, with its rich maritime history, Potagarh Fort, Tampara Lake, and the famous Gopalpur-on-Sea and Lighthouse.

> Odisha's thrilling tourism scene can be best explored by road. From the adrenaline-pumping trails of the Eastern Ghats to the serene backwaters of Chilika Lake, there's no shortage of adventures for thrill-seekers and nature lovers alike.
