On a Wing and a Prayer

Trip to Temples—a tour operator whose tagline reads 'Pilgrimage with Pleasure'—has come up with an innovative alternative to the rigours of the Kailash Mansarovar Yatra. Along with Nepal's Shree Airlines, it has launched aerial tours of Kailash Mansarovar from Nepalgunj in Nepal. No visa or even passport is necessary to do the 2N/3D trip, which starts from Lucknow, and includes a group hawan at the ancient Bageshwari Temple in Nepalgunj and a one-hour flight that takes in a darshan of Lake

Mansarovar, Mount Kailash South and East Face, as well as Mt Api, Mt Saipal and Mt Nampa. You also get a small bottle of Mansarovar jal to take back home. Contact: 8510007751. See triptotemples.com.

CAPITAL APP

If you're a tourist visiting Delhi, you cannot have a better companion than Delhi Tourism's Dekho Meri Dilli interactive tourism app (available on Google Play). The app has been created to act as a ready reckoner for travellers, providing them with a plethora of useful information about the capital, its tourist locations (including unexplored monuments), important contact numbers, etc. The app, which is integrated with Google Maps and Google Lens, also provides information on the best places to eat, shop and stay within the city. Best of all, it allows tourists to easily book tickets for all Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) monuments and Delhi Tourism projects.
