BATTLES

PUNJAB

Old BJP vs turncoats

- Ex-Congressman Sunil Jakhar is state party chief, Ravneet Bittu in Union cabinet. Both appointments seen as reward for "friendship" with leaders in Delhi; local leaders up in arms
- Jakhar, despite his rural background, has failed to make inroads in Punjab
- Traditional BJP/ RSS leaders feel their roles are shrinking in new scheme of things

HIMACHAL PRADESH

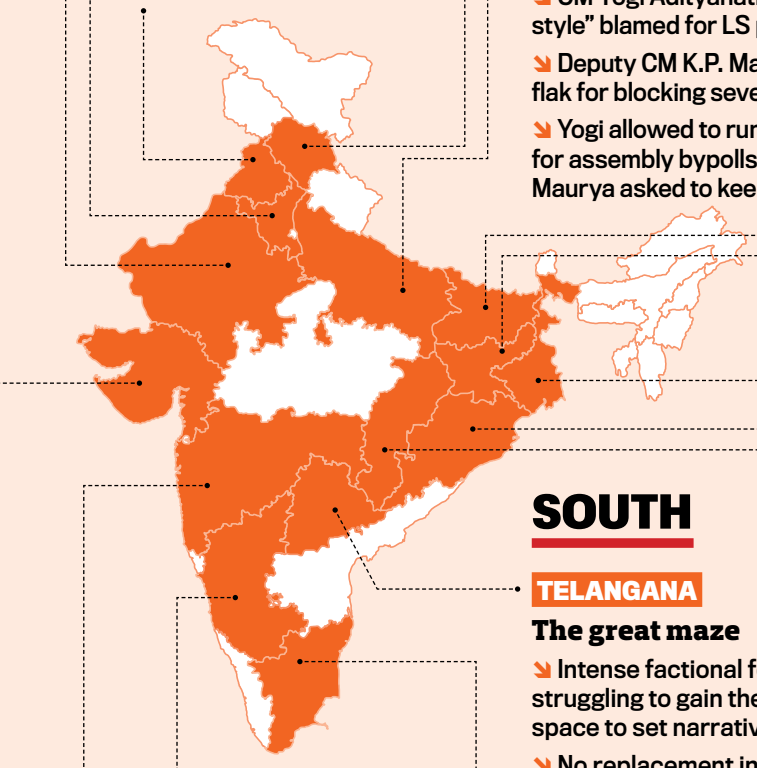

Thakur vs Thakur

- Several leaders close to ex-CM Jairam Thakur believe ex-Union minister Anurag Thakur's loyalists didn't do enough in the assembly bypolls for nine seats
- Anurag's father and ex-CM Prem Kumar Dhumal feels party leadership faltered with Mission Lotus, didn't keep him in the loop
- Anurag dropped from Modi 3.0 cabinet, no clarity on his future role

UTTAR PRADESH

Turf wars

- CM Yogi Adityanath's "working style" blamed for LS poll reverses
- Deputy CM K.P. Maurya takes flak for blocking several tickets
- Yogi allowed to run campaign for assembly bypolls (10 seats). Maurya asked to keep peace

KARNATAKA

BSY vs everybody

- Anti-B.S. Yediyurappa faction accepted his son B.Y. Vijayendra as state unit chief before LS poll, but in no mood to accommodate him now
- Delay in decision on national general secretary (organisation) B.L. Santhosh has again allowed anti-BSY camp to rally around him
- No one from BSY camp in Union government

SOUTH

TELANGANA

The great maze

- Intense factional feuds, party struggling to gain the opposition space to set narrative
- No replacement in sight for Union minister G. Kishan Reddy in the state unit chief post
- Deep divisions on taking in BRS turncoats

TAMIL NADU

Annamalai fires blanks

- BJP old-timers want state unit chief K. Annamalai downsized, a return to alliance with AIADMK
- Pro-Annamalai group wants party to continue on its own, build on LS vote share gains

EAST

BIHAR

Leadership crisis

- Sushil Modi's passing leaves big void; blame game for below-par performance in LS poll
- Deputy CM Samrat Choudhary takes flak for lack of support from his Koeri community
- New state unit chief Dilip Jaiswal is considered a lightweight

JHARKHAND

Tribal trip-wires

- State unit chief Babulal Marandi doesn't have tribals' confidence
- Entry of ex-CM Champai Soren could complicate matters
- RSS old-timer and BJP leader Laxmikant Bajpai and top Sangh leader Alok Kumar deployed to ensure local Sangh support
- Ex-BJP leader Saryu Roy's return was awaited; he opted for the JD(U)
- Arjun Munda returning to state politics brings more headaches

WEST BENGAL

A lost battle?

- Ex-state unit chief Dilip Ghosh and top leader Suvendu Adhikari at each other's throats over LS performance
- State unit chief Sukanta Majumdar ineffective, many district officials accused of embezzling poll funds
- Local BJP/ RSS units believe turncoats inducted by top leadership are not doing organisational work

ODISHA

Fortifying state unit

- Local unit divided on how to deal with the opposition BJD and turncoats
- With most heavyweights in Delhi, government and party unit are led by lightweights

CHHATTISGARH

Multiple power centres

- State has two power centres: CM Vishnudeo Sai and his deputy, Arun Sao
- Shifting Om Mathur out as Sikkim governor, Nitin Navin being made state in-charge seen as 'balancing' of power equations
