to the national average growth of 2.7 times during the same period. Currently, the state has a per capita income of around Rs 1.5 lakh per annum—higher than in Bihar, Madhya Pradesh, Uttar Pradesh, Jharkhand, Chhattisgarh and West Bengal.

However, the Odisha makeover didn't happen overnight. On February 24, the brightest minds in Odisha's administration and in the private sector gathered at the conclave to discuss the secret behind the state's success. From big industries to startups, from conventional education to skill development, from health to sports, from the celebration of women empowerment to the state's cultural and spiritual revival, the conclave touched upon all spheres. As an icing on the cake, the event concluded with an address by the CM and a candid interview with Pandian who spoke about 5T (see: "Odisha's next decade
