A ROBUST PARTNERSHIP

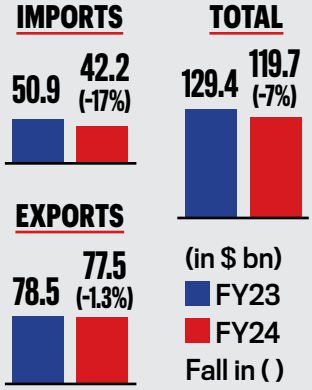

The US-India relationship as seen through the four pillars of overall trade, defence deals, latest agreement in technology, and migration

A VALID POINT
President Trump and Melania with PM Narendra Modi at Gandhi Ashram in Ahmedabad during his India visit, Feb. 24, 2020

TRADE

- India has a trade surplus of $35.3 bn (FY24) with the US—its largest trade partner. Trump's high tariffs will target China, but India won't be spared either
- In his first term, Trump imposed 25 per cent tariff on steel, 10 per cent on aluminium from India, other countries

TOP EXPORTS TO THE US (FY24)

- Electrical machinery and equipment $11 bn
- Gems and jewellery $9.9 bn
- Pharmaceutical products $8 bn
- Nuclear reactors, boilers $6.2 bn
- Mineral fuels/ oils etc $5.8 bn

TOP IMPORTS FROM THE US

- Mineral fuels/ oils $13 bn
- Gems and jewellery $5.2 bn
- Nuclear reactors, boilers $3.8 bn
- Electrical machinery and equipment $2.4 bn
- Aircraft/ spacecraft and parts $2.3 bn

TECHNOLOGY

- In 2022, PM Narendra Modi and US President Joe Biden launched iCET (US-India Initiative on Critical and Emerging Technology)
- It aims to bridge the gap between India's thriving start-up ecosystem and America's tech giants
- Eight key areas were identified including AI, semiconductors and quantum computing. Trump is likely to support the initiative in his second term

Source: Ministry of Commerce and Industry