and encouraging start-up ideas among students. This is also to boost confidence among students as they are encouraged to take risks.

The institute also encourages gender diversity on campus—134 of the 480 students enrolled (29.8 per cent) currently are women. The institute also has an admission policy in which female students are given extra weightage in entrance tests, without of course compromising on quality in any way. By carrying forward a rich legacy and looking ahead in terms of services, education and corporate relationships, IIM-Calcutta continues to enjoy a reputation for producing business professionals that deliver every time. ■
