runs—the first ever to cross 700 runs in a single edition of the tournament. Kohli wrests the numero uno crown among cricketers from M.S. Dhoni, even if the latter holds on to his fan base three years after he hung up his gloves. Current captain Rohit Sharma, whose swashbuckling starts in the opening 10 overs in the World Cup battered opponents, and Mohammed Shami, the Cup's leading wicket-taker with 24 scalps, finished third and fourth respectively.

When it comes to women cricketers, ace batter Smriti Mandhana reigned at the top again. Her being the most expensive player in women's IPL and her nine million Instagram followers have made her a favourite among brands too. She has a sizeable lead over captain Harmanpreet Kaur (No. 2), who has been struggling for form. Elsewhere, the retired Mithali Raj, like Dhoni, still holds a special place among fans. Young guns Shafali Verma and Deepti Sharma round off the top five. ■
