

TOURISM'S GR

Officials and industry leaders come together at the India Today Tourism Survey and Awards to discuss the sector's future as it bounces back from the shadow of the Covid-19 pandemic

BY SONALI ACHARJEE

There's more to Indian tourism than just the Taj Mahal, the palaces of Rajasthan, the beaches of Goa or the backwaters of Kerala. A growing number of tourists are looking for lesser-known gems: the Triyuginarayan Temple in Rudraprayag, Uttarakhand, the spot where Shiva and Parvati are said to have got married, has become a popular wedding destination, while the beach town of Konark in Odi-
