AYODHYA

Ram's Grand Abode

A majestic three-storey edifice, built in the traditional Nagara style of temple architecture, takes shape a kilometre away from the Sarayu. Far from finished, it will take a year for the entire structure to come up

Graphic by NILANJAN DAS

- COMPLETED
- PARTIALLY COMPLETED
- WORK IN INITIAL STAGES

70%
Green cover

2,500
Workers (deployed in two 12-hr shifts)

₹1,800 CRORE
Estimated cost

STONES USED

MAIN TEMPLE

- 470,000 cubic ft of pink sandstone
- 70,000 sq. ft Makrana marble for flooring
- 17,000 granite blocks for the plinth

PARKOTA (BOUNDARY)

- 791,155 cubic ft of sandstone

OTHER SACRED SPACES

- Seven other shrines dedicated to Maharishis Valmiki, Vashisht, Vishwamitra and Agastya besides Nishad Raj, Shabari and Ahilya, all associated with Ram's life, will be part of the temple complex
- On January 22, Prime Minister Narendra Modi also inaugurated a bronze idol of Jatayu at Kuber Tila near the main temple, where an ancient Shiva temple too has been refurbished