How the beloved YouTuber remodelled himself as an actor

"Mera dream hai ki main khud ko ek theatre me dekhoon [I dream of seeing myself on the big screen]. I want to make a film; I want to work in a film, not necessarily in the one that I make.... The only reason I opened my own production house was to not let anyone else make a fool of me. I want to learn from my own mistakes"

"You can either be happy or pretend to be happy and I was pretending to be happy as a lawyer, with a really good pay package and all of that.
