

▲ WILD RIDE: Changing the definition of hero

"Heroes with make-up are overglorified and there are many, many heroes in real life who are not celebrated enough. I think we should celebrate the heroes amongst us, whether it is in your classroom, your colony, your building, wherever it is..."

RANDEEP HOODA, Actor

◀ BRIGHT STAR
The Gen Z actor slaying it with her performances and fashion

"Of course, people in film families have more connections. It's easier to get into the room, but once you are in the room I think it is completely up to you, how you show yourself"

ANANYA PANDAY, Actor

DARE TO DREAM BIG ▼

"Ten years ago, there were like maybe one or two start-ups [in the space sector]; now there are 200. That's the kind of revolution the [space] policy has brought in...now the doors are open, you can build you own solutions, build satellites, launch rockets.... There are 200 vibrant start-ups building different space products in India thanks to the policy. And we are also enabled by it"

PAWAN KUMAR CHANDANA

▼ FICTION AS SOCIAL COMMENTARY IN MODERN INDIA

"I love politics because it is the ultimate brain involvement. Doing politics is so difficult, trying to convince people to go along with you and not go along with someone else...it's fascinating for me. That's like for a writer it naturally fits understanding society"
