MERCEDES-BENZ CLE CABRIOLET

Mercedes-Benz has launched the CLE 300 4Matic Cabriolet powered by a 2.0-litre, 4-cylinder motor which churns out 258bhp and 400Nm of torque. It's also equipped with a 48V mild-hybrid system as well as a 27bhp over-boost function that gives it a little extra shove, taking the combined power to 281bhp and 605Nm. The CLE Cabriolet comes with the AMG line trim.

▲ Santosh Iyer (in blue) and Lance Bennett of Mercedes-Benz India with the CLE Cabriolet

Engine 2.0 L
Power 258bhp, 400Nm torque
Price Rs 1.27 cr. (ex-showroom)

MAHINDRA XUV 3XO

Mahindra has launched the XUV 3XO, which is the XUV 300 with a facelift. The update gets new C-shaped LED DRLs, new LED headlamps, grille, as well as a full-width LED tail lamp. The interiors are new, including a cleaner design with fewer buttons dominated by a 10.25-inch infotainment display which runs wireless smartphone mirroring and a fully digital instrument panel. There is a panoramic sunroof as well in the top-end version, which is a first for the segment. There are three engines on offer, a 1.2-litre turbo-petrol with 111bhp (TCMPFi), a 1.5-litre diesel with 117bhp and a 1.2-litre turbo-petrol making 131bhp (TGDi). All of these are available with both manual and automatic transmission options.

▼ Caption: (L-R) M&M's leadership team comprising R. Velusamy, Rajesh Jejurikar, Pratap Bose and Nalinikanth Gollagunta with the new XUV 3XO

Engine 1.2 L turbo petrol/1.5 L diesel
Power 131bhp (turbo-petrol)/ 117bhp (diesel)
Price Rs 7.49-15.49 lakh (ex-showroom)