To celebrate our 78th Independence Day we took four outstanding Mercedes-Benz SUVs to the four corners of India as an homage to the incredible diversity of our nation. From the deserts in the west to the mountains in the north, the forests in the east and the ocean in the south, we canvassed the country soaking in the rich tapestry of culture and landscapes. From the four corners, the Auto Today team converged at New Delhi. From the North, starting at Khardung La, we drove the Mercedes-AMG GLE 53 Coupe, from the jungles of the East we started with the GLC, in the West, the electric EQB 350 traversed the mighty Thar desert while the GLA started from Dhanushkodi in the South, driving along India's longest highway. We explored the most unique kaleidoscope of diversity as we drove thousands of kilometres across the nation and experienced the vast array of contrasting paradoxes our country presents, be it in terms of cuisine, cultures or landscapes all of which come together to create this beautiful country that we have the privilege to call home. Along the way, each team discovered how their
