> The Mahayuti is contesting the elections under the leadership of Chief Minister Eknath Shinde. This is a line that has been cast in stone...the MVA is the most scattered alliance

SANJAY NIRUPAM
Former MP, Shiv Sena

> The MVA will break over the issue of seat-sharing. Even if they stitch a pact, they will break the very evening the results are announced

ASHISH SHELAR
Maharashtra MLA & President, Mumbai BJP

> The people of Maharashtra are sick of divisive politics.... We are a solid, secular front that will give them a solid government

PRANITI SHINDE
Lok Sabha MP & Working President, Maharashtra Pradesh Congress Committee

▲ CLASH OF COALITIONS: WHO WILL WIN MAHARASHTRA?

CHANDRADEEP KUMAR

▼ THE DEBUTANTS: FIRST-TIME MPs REDEFINING POLITICS

> My background must not undermine the effort I've put into my campaign. I worked as hard as any other candidate—perhaps harder because I am a woman

> Politics is demonised these days, but all of us are political in different ways. The day we begin discussing the government's performance or such isues, we become political

> Women and the youth should come forward and raise issues faced by their region, be it water supply or unemployment...to ensure development

> Be it for monarchy or contemporary democracy, the principles of leadership remain the same. Successful monarchs were those who were amongst the people
