

on the rise, but also wines that are more sessionable such as medium, lighter body and red blends. Alcohol-free wine is suitable for any situation where alcoholic wine would be served. There is always a reason to celebrate. Weddings, birthdays, new house, new car, baby showers, New Year's, festivals, promotions, family get-togethers the list is fairly long. If there is not a special occasion, well then, life itself is an occasion. Whether it's a refreshing happy hour at home or one's favourite meals, a get-together with friends, a movie or games night, or a craving for wine midweek, Unvined is a perfect companion to savour every occasion.

Tantalizing the palate

The new range is refreshing and elegant non-alcoholic wines. Every single drop of the brand has a lasting impact on the consumer's palate leaving them yearning for more. Available as both red and white wines, the brand caters to the taste buds of all wine lovers. Crafted with great research and care, each of the varietals incorporates the taste, aroma and texture of the original. The good old red Shiraz has found its variant in Unvined Shiraz with intense dark fruit characters with light and subtle hints of oak. One can pair it with a variety of savoury or spicy dishes, or just on its own. This Shiraz showcases a complex mix of plum, blackberry and chocolate spices. The lovely rounded palate offers dark berries and blackberry jam flavours complemented by soft tannins. Unvined Riesling offers attractive citrus, lime and floral notes that are typical of Australian Riesling. The light-bodied palate of Riesling contains refreshing fruit notes balanced by a crisp acidity on the finish.

Unvined can be readily enjoyed with a wide selection of foods. For the Riesling white meat, seafood dishes and salads make for a perfect companion. For the Shiraz, lighter-style curries go perfectly well. Marketed and sold at reasonable prices, the Unvined range is an apt companion when one feels like unwinding. There is no 'right time' or reason to open a bottle of Shiraz or Riesling. Every moment is a perfect moment to refresh oneself and celebrate with Unvined. Unvined gives the chance to recreate the luxury and ritual involved with drinking wine but without the alcohol. Maintaining the secret to producing good wine, the wine-drinking experience has been revolutionised by Jacob's Creek's Unvined.
