JIS GROUP

Mr. Taranjit Singh, the Managing Director of JIS Group Educational Initiatives, shares his late father's vision, Sardar Jodh Singh, of igniting minds and empowering lives through the light of education. Born into very humble beginnings, today he leads the largest premier education service provider in Eastern India, comprising over 39 Educational Institutes offering more than 185 course programs, with over 45,000 students currently enrolled in these diverse academic programs. Mr. Singh is widely recognised across Eastern India for his path-breaking and visionary contributions in molding the future generations of modern India through his pioneering role as an education evangelist and corporate leader. Over the years, he has transformed the educational landscape of the country, setting new standards in self-financed quality and practical education. He also played a pioneering role in establishing JIS University. His visionary efforts have been recognized through various awards and honors he has received over the years:
