Aapki Yojana, Aapki Sarkar

> Chief Minister Shri Hemant Soren led Government of Jharkhand is dedicated to the all-around development of all with emphasis on social justice

Under the leadership of Chief Minister Shri Hemant Soren, the Jharkhand government is fully committed to the overall development of every section and every geographical area of the state. In the four years since 2019, the government has taken many such steps which are providing direct benefits to all sections of the society living in every nook and corner of the state along with social justice to ensure all-around development. To ensure that no section of the state remains untouched, the schemes are monitored at the level of Chief Minister Shri Hemant Soren from planning to their implementation and it is ensured that the benefits of every scheme reach to every beneficiary. For this, the Soren government is also running the 'Aapki Yojana, Aapki Sarkar, Aapke Dwar' campaign.

Let's know about some of the major public welfare schemes of the Government of Jharkhand:

SONA SOBRAN DHOTI-SAREE DISTRIBUTION SCHEME

- The basic needs of every person include food, clothing and shelter. Jharkhand government is taking care of food and shelter along with clothes for the needy.
- Under the Sona Sobaran Dhoti-Saree Distribution Scheme, the state government provides dhoti/sari for Rs 10 twice a year at an interval of every 6 months to all the eligible households of the National Food Security Act along with the beneficiary families of Antyodaya Anna Yojana and Green Ration Card. Lungi and a saree are being given for just Rs 10.
- More than 65 lakh beneficiaries across Jharkhand are getting this benefit twice a year.
