

APEDA SPEARHEADS AGRICULTURAL EXPORT DRIVE TO BOOST INDIA'S GLOBAL PRESENCE

India's Agricultural and Processed Food Products Export Development Authority (APEDA) stands as a beacon of India's agricultural prowess, having been established in 1986 to navigate the complex landscape of global agricultural trade. As APEDA charts the course for the coming years, its focus on technology, capacity building, collaboration and market intelligence remains unwavering. This commitment ensures that India's agricultural exports continue to thrive on the global stage. As APEDA paves the way for an empowered agricultural sector, the vision of an economically vibrant and self-reliant India is steadily transforming into reality, placing India at the pinnacle of World Agri trade.

CULTIVATING RESILIENCE: FOSTERING THE HEART OF INDIA'S AGRICULTURE

The Agricultural and Processed Food Products Export Development Authority (APEDA), established in 1986, has evolved into a cornerstone of India's agricultural excellence and global trade strategy. Committed to navigating the intricate terrain of international agricultural commerce, APEDA has consistently focused on leveraging technology, fostering capacity building, collaboration and enhancing market intelligence. This steadfast dedication ensures the sustained growth and prominence of India's agricultural exports on the world platform. The agency's proactive measures envision establishing India at the forefront of a global agricultural renaissance. In pursuit of its goals, APEDA has undertaken numerous initiatives, showcasing the agency's pivotal role in shaping the narrative of India's agricultural exports. From meticulous analyses of export trends and contributions to sectoral growth to fostering innovative startups, women entrepreneurs, North-Eastern States and promoting diverse Agri-products, APEDA has been a catalyst for positive change.

CONNECTING WORLDS: APEDA'S DIPLOMATIC EXPERTISE IN GLOBAL TRADE

APEDA's success is exemplified by its collaborative endeavours that have resulted in significant milestones, such as the development of a sea protocol facilitating the inaugural shipment of bananas from Baramati, Maharashtra to Europe. Additionally, the transformative journey of women-led Farmer Producer Organizations (FPOs) like Arogya Millets underscores APEDA's comprehensive approach, marked by diplomatic finesse, strategic partnerships, and tangible economic impact, effectively enhancing India's agricultural standing on the global stage. Furthermore, APEDA's commitment to diversification is evident through its successful forays into new markets and the identification of novel products. This is evident in the notable surge in fresh fruit exports, substantial growth in exports of processed food items, and increased exports of poultry products. These accomplishments underscore APEDA's adaptability and responsiveness to dynamic market demands, solidifying its position as a key player in shaping the trajectory of India's agricultural exports. The agency's initiatives to export fresh potatoes to the UAE, cashew nut shipments to various countries, and the first-ever export of water chestnut from Varanasi to the UAE and much more new products to new destinations showcase its relentless efforts to promote diverse agricultural products globally. This has been made possible by APEDA's regular engagement with our Embassies, Missions abroad in discovering new opportunities and resolving any emergent issues/challenges.

EXPORT EXCELLENCE: BUILDING PARTNERSHIPS AND COLLABORATION

As a facilitator of Agri-startups and promoter of new products and destinations, APEDA has continuously demonstrated its commitment to fostering entrepreneurship-particularly start-ups and young entrepreneurs towards expanding the Global reach of Indian agricultural products. APEDA's influence extends well beyond national borders, as APEDA has been actively engaged in handling international issues related to food safety, traceability and global promotion. Over its 37-year journey, APEDA has adeptly navigated diplomatic dialogues, negotiations, and partnerships, ensuring compliance and acceptance of Indian products in diverse global markets. Handling international trade issues is intrinsic to its mandate as it oversees more than 700 tariff lines, ensuring the compliance and acceptance of the products in diverse global markets. APEDA adopts a multi-faceted approach, engaging in diplomatic dialogues, negotiations, and partnerships to address
