

BOUNDLESS BINA

Chairperson of Modi Enterprises - KK Modi Group, Dr. Bina Modi's journey of shattering glass ceilings, breaking barriers and charting a path for herself and many others to follow.

In the corridors of corporate leadership, Dr. Bina Modi stands tall as a trailblazer, defying norms and redefining success with every venture she undertakes. With her perseverance and passion, Dr Modi evolved a family run business to a professionally-managed enterprise. Among the select group of women chairpersons steering Fortune 500 companies, Dr. Modi's journey is a testament to resilience, breaking barriers, and championing social equity.

SHATTERING GLASS CEILING TIME AND AGAIN

In a world where the notion of privilege often accompanies wealth, it's crucial to unravel the tales behind closed doors. Dr. Bina Modi, though entering the illustrious Modi family, didn't escape the struggles unique to her journey. As a young bride, the lap of luxury surrounded her, yet within the walls of tradition, expectations loomed large.

The Modi family, deeply rooted in convention, placed significant emphasis on adherence to traditions. Bina, a vibrant soul teeming with creativity, passion, and boundless ideas, found herself at a crossroads. Despite the opulence that surrounded her, societal norms dictated a different path-one where she would seamlessly blend into the role of a dutiful daughter-in-law, a nurturing mother, and a supportive wife.

Yet, Bina harboured dreams that stretched beyond these conventional confines. A reservoir of creativity simmered within her, impatiently waiting for its chance to unfold. With resilience as her ally, she patiently embraced her roles, excelling in each one. The fire within her continued to burn, fuelling a longing to break free.

Then came the moment of reckoning, a juncture where the echoes of familial duties had softened. With her newfound freedom, Bina unfurled her wings. It was a two-decade-long wait, but today, she's rewriting the narrative. Breaking barriers and shattering glass ceilings, she transforms her passions into thriving businesses. Her journey is a symphony of resilience, creativity, and the tenacity to manage it all with unparalleled grace and panache. In the fabric of her life, patience, determination, and a dash of rebellion have woven a story that echoes far beyond the walls of tradition.

The spark ignited when a friend casually remarked that women couldn't successfully run food businesses. Driven by a personal desire to prove him wrong and challenge gender stereotypes, she embarked on a journey that birthed Ego. Starting small, she learned the intricacies of the food industry on the fly, transforming Ego into a chain of successful restaurants. This endeavour was just the beginning.

From the culinary world, she ventured into diverse domains, nurturing her varied interests. A luxury boutique specializing in Parsi gara and chikankari, an elite French salon, and a bespoke travel business-all blossomed from her passions. Dr. Modi exemplified that a woman could carve her niche across industries.

Her story reflects not just a transition but a metamorphosis. Taking over new responsibilities, Dr. Modi assumed leadership as the head of Modi Enterprises - KK Modi Group. She became the Chairperson of the Group's flagship companies, steering the colossal ship of the tobacco giant Godfrey Phillips India and one of the leaders of India's agro-chemical industry - Indofil. Under Dr. Modi's visionary guidance, Modi Enterprises - KK Modi Group has evolved from a family-
