GRAND OPENINGS

Three new properties in exotic international locations

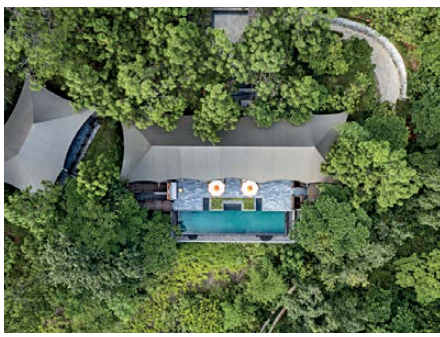

BHUTAN

Pampering in Pemako

Even as you soak in the sublime spirituality of the dzongs of Bhutan, a new luxury hospitality brand ensures that you are pampered in absolute comfort. Pemako, which now has resorts in the capital of Thimphu and in the beautiful Punakha Valley, offers everything from tented villas with private heated pools, to Serge Ferrari fabrics, copper fixtures, and authentic Bhutanese cuisine as well as international offerings in the most gorgeous restaurants. The rebranding of the resorts (Taj Tashi is now Pemako Thimphu) is more than just a change of name, there's a distinct transformation in the vibe.

MALDIVES

Soneva's Secret is out!

If you thought you'd mastered the art of the Maldives vacation, think again. January 10, 2024 will see guests arriving at HaaDhaalu, the country's most remote atoll, to experience an exquisite ultra-bespoke resort, Soneva Secret! Think intuitive, personalised service in secluded stays amidst unspoiled nature. Apparently, it's taken 30 years to create this coveted jewel, which promises only 14 beach and overwater villas. Word's out that the world's top luxury travellers are vying for a stay at Castaway, the Maldives' first floating villa, or the lagoon Crusoe Villas.

JAPAN

Soul Stirring

If Aman means 'calm' in Sanskrit, Janu is all about 'soul'. Travellers who have been Aman aficionados will love the new direction that the sister brand from the same hospitality group is taking, moving from the 'quiet luxury' feel of Aman to the soulful yet stylish mingling that Janu promises. Opening in March 2024 in the apt setting of Tokyo's Azabudai Hills, a 'modern urban village' that has been crafted over three decades to create an atmosphere that nurtures inner contentment, the stunning 122-keys Janu Tokyo will not only have six fantastic restaurants but also one of the largest wellness facilities in the city.
