

A movement that began with Milk as a symbol of protest over 75 years ago, in a small, dusty village in Gujarat, soon gained momentum to become one of the world's largest cooperative movements.

Empowering 3.6 million women farmers with economic independence & the confidence to step out, embrace technology and come together to create India's best loved food brand. AMUL.

The taste that millions of Indians wake up to every morning. Truly, the Taste Of India.

Amul
The Taste of India