

ICOTY 2024: Hyundai Exter

HYUNDAI WINS BIG AT INDIAN CAR OF THE YEAR AWARDS

The Hyundai Exter was adjudged the Indian Car of the Year (ICOTY) 2024 at the 19th edition of the ICOTY awards, the most prestigious in the Indian automotive industry. It was followed by the Maruti Suzuki Jimny in the first runner-up position, while the Honda Elevate and the Toyota Innova Hycross shared the second runner-up spot. Hyundai's other offering, the Ioniq 5, got the top honours in the Green Car category, with the BMW i7 and the MG Comet in the first and second runner-up positions, respectively. The jury also chose the winners in the Premium Car category. BMW cornered the award for its 7 Series, while its SUV, the X1, was adjudged the second runner-up. The Mercedes-Benz GLC took the first runner-up award.

Premium Car: BMW 7 Series

Green Car: Hyundai Ioniq 5

TWO IN A ROW FOR ROYAL ENFIELD

For Royal Enfield, it was a second win in a row, as it took home the Indian Motorcycle of the Year (IMOTY) 2024 award for its all-new adventure tourer, Himalayan. Siddhartha Lal, MD & CEO, Eicher Motors Ltd, received the award from Dr Raghupati Singhania, chairman & managing director, JK Tyre & Industries. The Himalayan finished ahead of the Triumph Scrambler 400X and the KTM 390 Duke, the first and second runners-up, respectively.

IMOTY 2024: Royal Enfield Himalayan