

Photograph by BANDEEP SINGH

ON ELECTORAL BONDS

Electoral bonds were introduced to end black money in Indian politics. Before them, how were contributions made to parties? Were any names disclosed when payments were made in cash? Now companies pay banks a cheque to buy bonds. The payment received reflects in party balance sheets, the payments made in company balance sheets. Where is the secrecy?

ON SPLITTING PARTIES

THE BJP DOESN'T BREAK ANY PARTY, THEY BREAK DUE TO PUTR-PUTRI MOH (FILIAL LOVE). UDDHAV THACKERAY WANTED SON AADITYA TO BECOME CM, SHARAD PAWAR WANTED THE SAME FOR HIS DAUGHTER. UNWILLING TO ACCEPT THEM AS LEADERS, THEIR PARTYMEN MOVED AWAY