ALUMNISPEAK

"IHM Pusa didn't just teach me the technical skills of hospitality management, but also nurtured my passion for the industry. It was here that I learned the importance of perseverance, hard work and attention to detail, lessons that have been crucial in my career"

NIKHIL SHARMA

CEO, Radisson Hotels, India, Batch of 1999 (Diploma in Hotel Management)

DID YOU KNOW?

- At IHM Pusa, students with a knack for devices, graphic design, photography and all things technology are part of an in-house team called 'Cynix'

THINGS TO WATCH OUT FOR

By Kamal Kant Pant, Principal, IHM Pusa

- It might look like a cakewalk from the outside, but it's a different world on the inside. All those hospitality professionals who seem to make the magic happen toil for hours in the background to ensure that it does
- Behind the glitz, one must have an aptitude for the hospitality industry and remain flexible about the 'unsocial' hours of work
- The right personality is important. Someone who derives energy through social interactions and is an extrovert has a better chance of excelling in the hospitality business

NEW-AGE COURSES

By Chef K. Thirugnanasambantham, Principal, Welcomgroup Graduate School of Hotel Administration, Manipal Academy of Higher Education, Manipal

- Culinary nutrition and wellness: Planning dietary regimes tailored for specific medical conditions such as cancer or heart and renal ailments
- Food science and innovation: A dynamic field, blending traditional knowledge with cutting-edge innovation, even using AI in the process
- Restaurant operation and management: Blends traditional management principles with technological advancements and new business models
