

Located in central Delhi, Maulana Azad Institute of Dental Sciences (MAIDS) celebrated its 40th anniversary this year. To mark the occasion, the institute organised a dental health 'utsav' that included free dental check-up, dental health awareness programmes, social media campaigns and lectures on dental health. Another proof of its commitment to providing dental care to the community is its mobile dental clinic which takes dental care to the doorstep of patients in remote parts of the national capital. MAIDS also provides two other essential services to the country—it is India's only dental institute to have a tissue bank that provides oral bone and tissue grafts to different hospitals and is the National Resource Centre for Oral Health & Tobacco Cessation, which is key to reducing India's lung cancer burden, a primary cause for which remains tobacco use. ■

WHAT SETS IT APART

- MAIDS has an NAAC CGPA score of 3.3/4 among all dental colleges
- It's ranked first in the number of OTs per student
- It's ranked second in faculty-per-student ratio
- The institute has established the Dental Technology Innovation Hub (DTIH), an initiative dedicated to fostering innovation and driving the design and development of revolutionary dental devices and products. Currently, the centre is developing 16 ground-
