A CRUCIBLE OF TECH CHAMPS

BITS Pilani's unique approach to education, including a zero-attendance policy and an entrepreneurship-focused curriculum, is the pivot of its trailblazing position in fostering innovation and producing industry leaders

"At the heart of the institute's success is its flexibility, which places the responsibility of learning on the students from the very beginning. In India, students often select courses based on societal pressure, but their true interests might lie elsewhere. Flexibility allows them to follow both their head and their heart"
