"For me, the meaning of happiness is to give happiness to others. I love to help others and it gives me a feeling of satisfaction. Even before I entered politics, I liked lending a helping hand to those struggling in life. Once, even I was a struggler, and I have experienced the pain that comes with it. Arranging beds in hospitals for those in need, arranging food for the poor...I have been doing these things for years. Apart from this, listening to old songs and swimming bring me a lot of happiness. I have a dream of opening a regional film city in UP, preferably in Gorakhpur. If it happens this year, then it will definitely be my biggest moment of happiness in 2023."

"Happiness to me is being with my loved ones, all of us safe, healthy and happy. There's food, banter, laughter, music, dance...or just doing nothing at all. But all filled with love and laughter in unison. And the peace that comes with it. It's the feeling of knowing all is well in my world. I experienced it recently while on a holiday in Africa. Watching these awe-inspiring creatures—whether the Big Five or the whale shark—in their natural habitat, some at close proximity of two to three feet. The silence, the occasional sound of my two boys bantering and laughing, and most importantly all of us together enjoying each moment to the fullest. Priceless."
