▶WHAT NEEDS TO BE DONE

STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIPS

Deepening economic, technological, defence cooperation with the US and EU. Enhance collaboration with Quad partners Japan, Australia and the US for regional security and economic stability in the Indo-Pacific

NEIGHBOURHOOD FIRST POLICY

Strengthening SAARC and BIMSTEC (Bay of Bengal Initiative for Multi-Sectoral Technical and Economic Cooperation) to foster economic/security cooperation. Through Act East Policy, boosting trade, investment and cultural ties with Southeast Asian nations

EXPERTSPEAK

HARSH PANT, Senior Fellow, Observer Research Foundation

"India has two diplomatic challenges—managing its relationship with the rising power, China, and ensuring it's on India's terms, and secondly managing ties with a relatively declining power like Russia"

ENGAGING WITH CHINA

Continuing the diplomatic and military dialogue with China to resolve the border dispute, defuse tension on the LAC

UN REFORMS

Pushing for the long overdue expansion of the UN Security Council; leverage India's standing in the Global South to address economic disparities and promote inclusive growth; lead global efforts to combat climate change and promote sustainable development

COUNTER-TERRORISM

Enhance intelligence-sharing and joint operations with international allies and participate in global counter-terrorism initiatives
